Junior Prom

Last May, the class of 2003 was the first class ever to move out of the dull cafeteria and experience the Junior Prom at the Bedford Renaissance Hotel. The night consisted of dinner, dancing and it was an overall success. The announcement of the prom king and queen was brought on halfway through the night. The winners were Krista Harrington, queen, and Jeff Tate, king. The prom court, voted upon by the class and the faculty, included Courtney Little, Meghan Wilcox, Carey St. Onge, Elyse Smith, Alex Iwanchuk, Tim Brady, Tyler Gray, and Richie Volpicelli. This night will provide many unforgettable memories for the class of 2003. The class officers, especially the prom committee, Allyson Mconnell and Kirsten Lundberg, would like to thank everyone for their generosity and helpfulness in making the junior prom such a special evening.

Koan #14 from "The Gateless Gate":
 "Once the monks of the eastern and western Zen halls were quarrelling about a cat. Nansen held up the cat and said, 'You monks! If one of you can say a word, I will spare the cat. If you can't say anything, I will put it to the sword.'" No one could answer, so Nansen finally slew it. In the evening, when Joshu returned, Nansen told him what had happened. Joshu, thereupon, took off his sandals, put them on his head and walked out. Nansen said, "If you had been there, I could have saved the cat."

It's Over? We finished on time??? We didn't lose any money??????????? Whoaaaa. That's way too good to be true. If you not pulling my leg, then I'd like to thank the rest of the staff for making all that true. Honestly, we could not have made it through the year without any of them. First of all, I'd like to thank Mr. Rinaldi, our long-time adviser and treasure-chest of knowledge. He has been there for us more times than I can count and deserves more credit than any of us. He knew exactly what had to be done and when, and he did all the stuff that we couldn't do. Furthermore, he provided us with the munchies that kept us going through the long hours. Next, I'd like to thank the staff in no particular order. Jamie C: Thanks for being the guy with the technical know-how who got our dividers fixed, setup our fourth computer, and helped to keep us grounded in reality. Steph R: Hey, without the stuff you did in the beginning, we could have missed deadline 1 by several more weeks. Ken L: Even without your best efforts, you got our mailings to succeed. Sean G: The Drill Team page would have been empty if you hadn't been there to help us with their schedule and photos. Mike P: Thanks for being there for every single deadline and doing both photos and layout, not to mention managing our crew during X-block. You are one of the most creative people I've ever met and your signature mischief will forever be part of Yearbook. Wyatt S: You set up most of the photo stuff that we needed in the beginning and got the photo group going early on. Kirsten L and Emma W: Thank you both for your patience with us and learning how we function in a snap.

If it weren't for you two, we wouldn't have been able to make the senior pages as good as they are now or finish them as quickly as we did. Phil S: Thanks for trying to learn what you could from Ken, putting up with the lack of business stuff, and always being ready. Ashley D and Christine B: Thanks for finishing the deadline 2 sports pages for us. Your knowledge of many of the names or where to find them has saved us much trouble. Do you know when we're going to get our tape roller back? Ching Tzer C: The entertainment was great! Seeing freshmen learning the ropes is always cool. Naming your grade would have been "brain-scratchingly" hard. Jessica W: Don't worry, I was getting to you!! Thank you for your extensive contribution of photography, jokes, and ability to keep others in line *cough*clowns*cough*. Thank you as well for your constant ideas on how to make the book better. Mike L: You saved us from having to resort to work late night Fridays by being there when we most desperately needed people during proofing season. Work ethic wise, you are one of the best. Phil G: Thanks for getting a lot of the faculty pictures for us. Erika B: You gave our book a sense of sanity amid the cacophony of naughty words and hollering. When Mike P. starts bouncing off the walls, you're the only one who can calm him down. Every person who helped us caption a sports page or club: My sincerest thanks. Captioning has always been the greatest challenge of every book and every single assistance helped us to rise above it. Krysten Whitt

The Girls Varsity Basketball team is moving up the ladder. This years record was an improvement from last years with four unforgettable wins. A one point victory against Boston Latin and an outstanding, well played game against Newton South will remain in everyone's head. The Lady Bucs have learned that winning is not the most important thing but coming together as a team and hard work will bring them victories. This years team was led by co.-captains Jen Strachan and Natashya Sanoja. Thank you to the three seniors Kristi Tropeano, Jen Strachan and Sarah Armstrong for their outstanding leadership. The three seniors will surely be missed, but hopefully next years team will continue to make it to the top.

Good Luck!

Sports

Even though knocked out in the 2nd round of the Division III State Tournament, the boys varsity baseball team still had a promising year. The team was lead by 9 seniors (Danny Fagan, Timmy Busa, Dennis Griecci, Ben Armstrong, Gunnar Olson, Pete Spencer, Mike Sargent, Dane Mahoney, and Craig Warrington) which ended with a 14-6 record. Tim Brady, Scott Wright, Ian Sullivan, Richie Volpicelli, Danny Richter, Jacob Lafo, and Chris Dutton also contributed to the team's winning ways. The team accomplished a great amount during the season, but nothing was better than their win against Concord-Carlisle up in Cooperstown, New York, the home of baseball. In the up coming year, the boys will have a new challenge to deal with when they change to using all wooden bats instead of the long time aluminum ones. But with many experience players returning, the baseball team looks to improve and once again have another successful season.

Sports

Although last year's Lady Bucs did not bring home a victory for each game, they remained together as a team. They showed strong competitiveness throughout each of their games. Completing a no hitter, shut out against one of their biggest competitors, Acton-Boxboro, was one of the biggest highlights of the year. In the final innings of the game, the girls were able to score multiple runs, and bring the final score within three. They not only grew as a team this past spring, but as people as well. They learned to accept when they were defeated, and celebrate during a victory. The girls will look forward to playing hard and strong in this coming year and will continue to remember that "the only time success comes before work is in the dictionary."

As "MIAA Division II Boys Tennis Champions," the Bedford tennis team once again proved that they were not only one of the best teams in their division, but the entire state as well. The team was coached by should-be "Coach of the Year," John Geilfuss. With only two losses and a state championship, the tennis team fulfilled their great expectations for the season. Led by senior captains Pat Redmond and Mike DeBartolo, the team was arguably one of the best division two teams in some time. With one of the best singles players in the state, Pat Redmond, playing first singles, the team was destined for greatness. Chris Kiely worked hard and played well at the demanding second singles position. A rotation of Mark DeBartolo, Eric Kachelmyer, Brian Spencer, and Elliot Rabinowitz were used in the third singles position. Midway through the season, both doubles teams had yet to lost a set, let alone a match. The doubles matches had only lost a total of three matches the whole season. The Bedford team had three doubles pairings that could regularly beat any first doubles team. They were: Mike DeBartolo and Eric Kachelmyer, Phil DeMeo and Chris Long, and Brett Boghigian and Peter Johannesen. Also seen to dominate matches were the pairings of Eric Kachelmyer and Brett Boghigian, and Phil DeMeo and Brett Boghigian. Ryan Lucas and Mark Amato also made appearances in some varsity matches. Unofficial JV Captains Steve Kerwin and Dave Arzumanyan were a force to be reckoned with in the JV matches. The JV doubles teams of Andy Shen and Jerry Gao, and Ken Liu and Will Shao provided the team with the intellectual advantage over every team. With the loss of only two seniors for the 2003 season, the Bedford "netmen" only look to surpass their previous achievements.

The girls tennis team worked hard to progress during the 2001 season, the girls worked together improving their skills under the leadership of captains Nancy Yeh and Pam Harvey and Coach Aldo. The team tried very hard in the competitive DCL league, especially against the state champions, Boston Latin. Although many matches were tough, the girls gave all their energy and strength. Their hard work definitely paid off and let to individual and team development. In addition to this, the girls had a fun and enjoyable season. Next spring should be a good season as the team continues to grow!

The Bedford Varsity Lacrosse team had its best season in a long time. The team was lead by captains Dave Weston, Ryan Read, and Dave Webster, along with nine other seniors. The team was able to gain a few convincing wins, including two DCL wins against Newton-South. The team made its presence known in the DCL. The years to come show some great promise in which the team hopes to call on the expertise of some talented sophomores, like Scott Rossi, Mike O'Reilly, Chris O'Brien, and Jonny Hempton. However, the upcoming season will be a test after losing twelve seniors. The Bucs will count of returning seniors Mike Lynch, Steve McLane, and Greg Gannon to lead the way into another successful year.

The girls did not win many games, but they always made sure to put in their best efforts throughout the season. Field Hockey Congratulations on a great season Bucs! We may not have any "W's," but the improvement we experienced as a team this season was incredible. Many of the scores from the previous season were cut in half. Much thanks to Coach Barton for all her hard work and inspiration on and off the field. It was greatly appreciated. The girls' varsity field hockey team was made up of 5 seniors, 6 juniors, 4 sophomores, and 1 freshman led by co-captains Kim Bernardo and Michelle Hagar. Congratulations to Maggie Brogan, Jill Russo, Michelle Hagar, Candice Duprey, and Megan Asp for being this year's DCL all stars. Thanks to everyone for such a memorable and enjoyable 2002 season. We are so happy to have been able to play with such a talented, dedicated, and enthusiastic group of girls this year. We put up quite a fight this season and truly competed with the other teams in the DCL. Good luck to everyone next year, especially new tri-captains Colleen McGovern, Jill Russo, and Meagan Asp... you guys will be great!

Swim Team

Sports

This year's Bedford Swim Team had more fun than any other in the past. Despite a losing record and small numbers, we had a great time. Much of this can be attributed to our extraordinary coaches, Dotty Blake and Cissy Westerkamp, who realized that victory was not in the cards this year. However, this season was far from a failure. There were more best times and scores achieved than any previous season. Both our boys and girls swim teams were led by a strong group of seniors who showed amazing versatility: Rebecca Parkhurst, Tom Moran, Sarah Healy, Keith Egan, Betsey Holland, and Brian Blake. All were willing and competed in both sprint and endurance events. Our small but effective dive team consisted of two seniors: first time diver Whitney Dorer and Chris Minue. Even though our numbers have declined, the future of the team looks promising because of the dedication and effort displayed by the underclassmen. Our practices were something we looked forward to everyday, despite the long bus ride and odd hours. We wish all of you the best of luck and want you to keep one thing in mind... Just finish, don't drown, automatic points! Woo!

The 2002-2003 Season

Interest in the ski team is at a new high, with many underclassmen eager to try out. In the upcoming years, the ski team will become a force to be reckoned with. Returning to coach for a second year was Mrs. Johannessen. With new techniques and exercises, she whipped the team into shape in the preseason and on the slopes. This season, the team was led by captains Chris Dutton and Owen Harris. Other varsity racers were Matt Fish, Peter Johannessen, Peter Sheppard and Mike Waters. This year's girl's team only had four members and was led by Rebecca Trigg.

This year the Bedford High School cheerleaders had their work cut out for them. After losing many valuable seniors from the previous year, they knew it would be tough to defend their Dual-County League 1st place title. Obstacles arose when their routine was not yet complete just one week prior to their first competition. However, this did not deter them from putting on an amazing performance when DCLs finally rolled around in November. Although they only emerged as silver medallists, they were proud of what they had accomplished that season. Amidst the endless practices and competitions, the cheerleaders were always able to show unconditional support towards not only the football team, but other sports as well. Countless signs and banners later, the season was over. Ladies, keep up the excellent work and good luck in years to come!

Golf

The 2002 golf season was known as a "rebuilding" year. After losing 8 seniors, there were only 4 returning players. Among these were seniors Brett Boghigian and Adam Chan, senior co-captain Mark Amato, and junior co-captain and DCL All-star Pat Sullivan. Sullivan played in the MIAA Division 3 North sectional golf tournament at Thompson Country Club in North Reading, shooting an 86, missing the cut for the state tournament by one stroke. The team ended up with a record of 5-10-1, which was better than most expected. Most of the team were newcomers to the sport. With many hours of practice, hard work, and excellent coaching by Mr. Reynolds and leadership of Mark Amato, the team was able to win some big matches, including its biggest win in Wayland, where Brett "El Tigre," shot an amazing 22 points, the highest point total seen since the point system began 4 years ago. Junior Billy Wilson and sophomore Pete Sheppard always came in with solid performances. Freshman Brandon Sheehan and sophomores Matt Bushnell and Andrew Tollman were also able to play well in some Varsity matches. Senior Steve McLane decided to switch from soccer to golf, and scored well in many matches. Freshman Chris Redmond, and sophomore Nick Young did not see any varsity action, but they will be needed in order for success in the upcoming years.

The girls' Varsity soccer team played their first game on September 11th, 2002, against Lincoln-Sudbury. Since then, they have gone on to have an admirable season. parents and my brother, Joe, are the first I would to thank. Being born was probably the most portant event of my life... Everyone says mine are coolest parents anyone could have and I can't ue. My family has instilled in me a sense of sonal responsibility, self-confidence, and most portantly, humor. They've been there for me ough all these years of school when I was con- tly adjusting. I feel lucky to have both my parents y close to me, and a brother who I can always talk I know how much of a challenge lies before me l that they will be close at hand for when I need p. I look forward to the day I can somehow repay m for who they are and what they do. I've had ne great teachers through out these 12 years of ool. Not all of them were spent in Bedford. Tom ling was my art teacher from third to seventh de when I went to school in Harvard, MA. Art to n was a way of life. Being part of that way of life e added dimension to my personality. He helped get in touch with my creative side, taught me to press myself through what I do, and I learned from i how important it is to have art in my life. He was ays proud of my art work, but unfortunately was ver able to hear my music. It was at his memorial vice that in singing a song, and seeing how it eacted myself and the people around me, that I covered my calling. This was my first solo perfor- nce and remains one of the most inspiring expe- nces of my life. Gotta love the music departmnet!

When I thought I wasn't much of a singer, Mr. Low put me in Chamber singers, then Madrigal, then cast me as Sasha in Fiddler on the Roof which was very memorable. Mr. Salvante gave me direction for my guitar playing. He's also just a cool guy. I hope everything works out with him and I wish we could have worked together more. Mr. Felker is the man. He went to college and got a degree in "The Man." He validated my electric bass playing skills by putting me in with the Marching Band (an experience which I can't even begin to praise), and gave me an idea of the different directions a musician can go in the world. All the music teachers and Mr. Boschetto have been an inspiration as far as my career choice, Music Education, goes. "Remember, no man is a failure who has friends." Without the friends I have made I would most certainly be lost. I have learned so much about myself by spending time with these people and at the same time have enjoyed some truly joyful experiences. I thank all of my friends for making my life the crazy, hectic, tiring, stressful thing that it is. I have learned to appreciate friendship for what it is, not for what it can give me, and I will hold that with me for the rest of my life. I thank Jesse for being my best friend for as long as I can remember. Through working out our differences and sharing so much joy and pain together, our friendship has become stronger than the average. I thank Sarah for being there when I needed someone to talk to. For smiling whenever I would frown and for laughing whenever I would cry, and for smacking me whenever I would tickle her. I thank Alyssa and her family for helping me to define friendship. I thank Katie for being whatever I need whenever I need it. There have been so many times I would talk to her and she would listen to me, and lift my spirits, and convince me that I'm better than I think I am, and that I can do anything. I thank Max for being a good movie date and a whole lot more. Fish for all the truly good laughs. Ben for being a good friend and someone to talk to. Chris for keeping a sense of humor about everything, and cheering me on in everything I do. Tim for pointing out the humorous subtleties of my personality, and always offering the "Tim" side of things, which always seem to make a lot more sense. Alec for pick-up truck rides to Bickfords and "Heh Ken!" Lauri for having a locker next to mine, sitting next to me in Humanities, being around to poke and say "hi" when no one else is paying attention. Jenny for letting me punch her, "Hello Hercules!" and Ari Hest! Kayla for yelling at me, making fun of me, smiling, and letting me do the same to her. Nate for being funny, when me, Jesse and Tony were fighting, but being a good guy when it came down to it. Tony for showing me the other side of things, that dreams are really worth pursuing and hard work pays off, sometimes in more ways than we think. I thank Lauren for the happiness, inspiration, and unconditional love she has given me. Never have I experienced such joy for the mere presence of someone as I have with her. And with no one have I felt such hope for the future. There are so many people that have made school a great experience for me. I wanted to give special thanks to some people. However, no one who I ever laughed with, taught, drove around, ate with at lunch, bumped into in the hall and yelled at, sang with, or made fun of is an exception here. I am what I am for the people I've grown to know. I'm so lucky to have had so many good experiences so far, and look forward to whatever comes next.

Thank you: MOMMIE AND DADDIO- I can't ever repay you for all of your time and love and support, but I hope you know that I appreciate it more than anything. You've sacrificed so much, and believe me, nothing has gone unnoticed. You've taught me so much about life, and I admire you both immensely. You've always trusted and had faith in me, giving me confidence and letting me be the person I am today. If I can be as good of a parent as you both are when I grow older, I'll be the happiest woman alive. I'll never forget the day trips to the beach, Westport, the ferry and tuna melts, car rides, Disney, learning about the stock market, bike path trips, fishing, going on the T, etc! You were always there for me, whenever I needed you, from a ride to the mall to going to a parent teacher conference to making me breakfast, lunch, and dinner to sitting by me when I was sick. There are no words that can express what you both mean to me. I looove you!
JYNETTE- You are the coolest sister I could have ever asked for, Bubbie! You make me SO HAPPY! You're definitely the goofiest, funniest, most beautiful lil sis ever- can I take you with me to college? I remember asking for a little sister when I was six, but I never knew that I'd gain a best friend at the same time. You make everything fun- I don't think we've ever had a sad face around each other, and that's amazing for siblings. We have that connection, Netty. Ever since you were born I've known you were going to be a special sis. From sleepovers to baking (and me burning everything) to jumping on the tramp (we're the swanky fairies!) and playing in the snow and laughing so hard you pee on my floor, I love you, I love you, I love you! CHRIS BRO'LITE-You really did have me at "hey hey," and I just can't believe how great these years have been with you in

If I could create a friend for myself I would make them exactly like you! Thank you for always having if you weren't around to make me smile:-D I love how we can just look over at each other and know what we're both thinking...it's definitely the bunnie vibe. And how we can just hang out and eat ice cream, or spend hours talking, or go shopping, and everything we do together is just the best time ever.

BETSEY, seriously, you are the most outgoing person I know and I love it! Sometimes things get a little shaky, but it always makes our friendship stronger. I love coming into my own house and finding you munching away on cookies sitting in front of the t.v. You're truly one of the family. We've done so much together: flaming cheese-its, yoga in my backyard, destroying Becca's car with fake snow, and na-na magazine land.  port, and encouragement, and all your good advice.
 My grandparents, thanks for all you have done for me, the rest of my family thank you for everything.
 Ross- you are most definitely my best friend, "Daaaang", all the time we spent chillin in the basement, hanging out/ working in the shop with Jimmy (the man) all summer, "this things gonna handle like nobodies business". All the times we went cruising around the town, the VA in the winter, playing Bocce, potato guns, all the camping and ski trips, countless hours of nothing to do. Thanks for being there to talk to all the time, you are the man.

 Matheson- you are one of the funniest people I know, all the times driving in the Volvo with nothing to do, your crazy schemes, tractor racing, paintball in the woods, we had tons of crazy fun. Jeff, Sleuthay-"Uhh, the cars making this noise", lazy style chillin in the basement, cruzin around in your truck "built ford tough", directed study with zipzaps, your super deals, all your great one liners, you are a funny man, thanks for all the good times. Brain- the scooter, eating good food, talking about cars "I need it", all the times camping and skiing, and the air cannon, good times. Brad- "Ohh Jeez", you are hands down the craziest driver in know, all the good times driving in the sable and the c-rola "Brad you're gonna cut this guy off right?", the CD trade, playing with the comps, camping, and skiing very fast, ski team, you're a good friend, thanks. Keith- we have not been good friends long but thanks alot, CD trade, CPR classes were we took way too many notes, hanging out, ski team, many funny times in the past year its been cool. Kurt- Good times driving (in both cars), talking about cars, biking, ski team, English with Gaillard "rat pack", all the other good times.

 chilling with me. We've had lots of fun together.
 Sarah Healy- you have been the best friend to me in the times when I've really needed it. And I've needed it during high school. And you've always been there for me, through everything. I know that I can be kind of strange and not make sense at times, but you still want to hang with me anyway, even when other people don't want to. Marching band has been more fun with you in it. Five "stahs" for Bedford High School (maybe someday)! Plus, who else would see "The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring" and "The Lord of the Rings: The Two Towers" a million times with me in the theaters? It's only truly fun going with you, Merry. We've had lots of fun times hanging out together. "King...DOM!" "Legolas doing his nude rendition of "Silmarillion, the Musical" ..with lots of high kicks!" "TIG!" "TOG!"
 "Arrrrr, We be pirates!" "Piptastic!" "Domilicious!" "Orlirific!" "WHOAH!" Ricky Reiss - you have also been an awesome friend to me during marching band, school, etc...we never really had a chance to hang out much out of school but when we did we had loads of fun. Marching band has been loads of fun with you in it. Go pit percussion! You're one of the coolest people I know. And someday I will play my Bagpipes for you in front of your house when you're least expecting it! Chris Stuart - you've been a great friend to me these years that I've been in Bedford. It's been especially fun this year being in Math and English class together. You've made it very fun. Thank you for letting me rant endlessly about "Lord of the Rings" and not yelling at me to stop! Kimmee Sagrillo - you're such a cool person. I'm so glad that I met you in marching band! You're so much fun to hang out with. It's never boring with you around. Also, thank you for being there when I needed a friend the most. Go flutes! Fruits (flute) and pickle (piccolo) power! Marching band dorks all the way! Ms. Savarino - I don't even know how to thank you. Without you I probably would've flunked out of school a long time ago. I know I haven't always been the nicest person to you, but I thank you for not giving up on me. You've helped me so much these past four years. Not just with school but with life skills that I'm sure to use in future years. Mr. Reagan - Thanks for making playing an instrument fun! And for making my first two years of marching band great! Mr. Felker - Thank you for making the past three years of marching band a fun experience!

David Gagnon

First I would like to thank my parents. With out you pushing me to do my best, I would not be where I am or the person I am today. It seems the sacrifices you have made for me are paying off. Matt, good luck next year. You're going to need it without your big brother watching your back. To my friends for always being there and for all the fun we had together. Mike, man we sure had some crazy times. See you on my wing Mav. Travis, I still think joining the marines is a mistake, but good luck anyway, you're going to need it. Robert, you certainly changed in the four years at Bedford, but your still one of the funniest guys I know. Brian, we should have hung out more. Maybe you were busy with somebody else... Thank you to all the fine Bedford citizens who didn't pass me off as another kid from the base. It sure would have been a different experience if you had. Perhaps I would have slept instead of playing ridiculous games in calc, or I would not of had a beautiful date for the prom, and I certainly wouldn't have had as exciting of a life. To all my friends who have moved through the years, you probably won't read this, but thank you anyway. To the cadets under my command, sure I wasn't the best commander, but I surely wasn't the worst. I have had a great four years at Bedford, and I will never forget them. There are so many more to mention that mean a lot to me. Thank you all and good luck in the future! You know who you are. Go Purdue....the chicken school?

MOM & DAD- Thanks for putting up with me, for always being their and supporting me in what ever I choose to do, and for pushing me to accomplish my goals. MATTHEW & ALLISON- Thanks for putting up with me for all these years. LISA-What can I say, except I won't go pickin banana's in Vermont, we have had our moments, both good and bad. We have traveled to Maine, NH, RI, Massachusetts, but we learned how to sing in Connecticut. We were operated by our good friend Rosy (and can share stories), we laugh at the same scenes in "Singin in the Rain", and are still mesmerized by it. We have developed our own language: SHKPP, holy begonias, holy shubunkins, stu, and suffered through Math, History, Law, and Work. We went shopping, to the movies, out to eat, and every time we got out of your car it was followed by "if you don't lock your door you're in big trouble". I could always count on you to lose something, than realize it was in your hand (Diet. Pepsi) or to like anything that sparkled or to be able to carry on a phone conversation for hours at a time. We dodged flying object that came towards our heads, and laughed when we would miss our targets. There was the night of the poker chip fight, the time the nutcracker music fit "Gone in 60 Seconds" perfectly, the nights in Boston, the parties, D&D's, Steve's, and the nights we didn't have anything to do. We have had a lot of fun and have developed a lot of memories in the past 3 years, so thanx. CHRIS- The age old question who did I meet first, you or Sarah. I guess we decided it was you, and we have been friends ever since. We were a team, football, softball (the window), wiffleball, 3 yard tag, bar-b-que, talents shows, movies, lemonade stand, our infamous graveyard, snowball fights, bowling, "Wild Thing", our famous one of a kind clubhouse, and the night of the poker chip and brown sugar fight, getting lost in the middle of nowhere, "Ah Chris where is Massachusetts, ya know the part of the map we kinda need!" finding RT 20 no matter where we were, and all the other things we ever did. KEITH- We were in pre-school together, and every grade after until 5th grade. We are the worst spellers ever, the b-day parties, our make believe games, Milton, CPR, Law, the ride to the Cape, Ememin, Parties, our famous conversations, thanx buddy. Nikki- They told us that our friends would change once we got to high school. They were right, except for us, we remained friends when all our other friendships diminished. Softball, Freshmen FH, Physics, the eye (once again sorry), Florida, Middle School, our first group of 5 and our second group of 5, Stone, the sleepovers, Friday and Saturday nights, New the Super Bowl, and everything else. COLI Olympics Anyone? How about some Pringles, about a scrapbook? We have had a lot of sleepovers, CCD, Boston, movies, parties, hangin out doing nothing, and our long convations, thanx. HEATHER- Forensics, Psychology projects), the good old days, movies, dinner, g parties, mall, sleepovers, "scary" movies, the re blue lights in your car (so cool), softball, Fresh FH. REBECCA P- "For some reason I feel should be offended", our small lunch, Drew vs (but the Red Sox are still the best), FH (go History, Gym. REBECCA W- FH, Math, #14 (n G.Girls, your dance, and everything else, th BETSEY- Drivers Ed, E-Brake, Snow, ABS, dr test (I'm surprised we survived), 8th grade law, your cheerfulness at 8 am, and freshme JEN- 1/2 days, sleepovers, math, our old g Sarah's house, cooking, and everything else we did. Mom and Dad and Kathryn: you have always pushed me harder than I thought I ought to be pushed. I know that I have not always seen eye to eye about lots of stuff. I know who I am and the people I like to hang out with. I will choose my friends with care.

No worries. Gina wow has this year finally happened or am I just dreaming? Well it must be real or I have no idea with what's going on. You are the only person who is as big a Lord of the Rings fan as I am maybe bigger. But who else would see it with me so many times and find all the inside info for it.
We are going to have to stay in touch with each other when we go off to college. You havemade all my years in marching band so much fun. Marching Band was some of the most fun I had. Remember that I will be there for you no matter what time of the day. You are a good listener for when I rant. I like to listen to you rant about whatever was on your mind. We are very weird and that's ok Ricky: We will have to keep in touch after I leave. If I had not known you I don't think that I could have made it thru math Jr. year. I have had fun hanging out with you during the musicals. I had fun doing Marching Band and going to the movies and all other outside of school stuff. You acted sometimes as my conscience when I got a little weird. You have always been there to hear me rant about whatever was on my mind. You are a good listener. Ms. Pascucci: you are the best teacher that I had and you pushed me and made me think. You also went to the extreme to help me on a project. You always were there for me when I needed advice. You are the nicest person in the world and I am very privileged to be a student of yours. I thank you for all that you have done for me.

Betsy Holand

Mom, I remember in middle school when I was the only person who didn't fight with my mom, we still don't. You are the only stable thing in my life; I know you will always be there for me. Dad, although we don't get to see each other as much as either of us would like, I love your company. I know you are there for me whenever I need you. Sam, thanks for being passionate about everything, thank you for caring so much about me. John, thank you for always telling me the truth and facing me when I'm sleeping. Someday I'll have a boyfriend, you just wait! Don, thank you for all your support - and the Jimmy! To my 2nd moms, Susan and Sarah, I can always count on you for anything, you have done so much. To the Dorer's: thank you for making me the fifth addition to your family and letting me eat all of your food! Kerry, ILU, and I don't know how I would have gotten through these years without you. I know that years from now we will still be close as ever. Never ditch me cause I'm too "goody-two-shoes" for you! Whitney, I can't believe how close we've stayed after everything we've been through. You've taught me that everything can change in a snap, and at that moment past disagreements are not important. I will always be there for you, especially to eat your gluten-free food! Becca, I hope you know that I am ready to talk 24-hours a day, except past 8pm! I know that I can come to you if I ever need a completely honest opinion. And all I want you to remember that school can wait, sleep can't! Sara, you are such a strong person, I know you will accomplish extraordinary things someday. Thank you for educating me in 80's movies, accompanying me in my hyperness and for your many stories. Colleen, someday when we're twenty-five we'll be teaching together, right? I can't wait. I know that even then you will still have your thirst for life, never lose that, it makes you who we all love. Sam, I still think you and Nikki should go on a comedy tour, study parties are always more fun when you're there, French was...fun (well the videos anyways), too bad Bernie broke the camera... Keith, sorry about hating you...I swear I don't anymore! Work (well, you working-me eating) has been great, thanks for finally getting lazy and for being my co-captain. Chris, want some hamburgers on my George Foreman grill? Thanks for doing so much for me. Katie, thanks for the guy dramas, the many trips to CVS to get our candy fix, and always wanting to hang out with me! I'll miss you so much. Jen, you were always the trouble-maker in English! Thanks for letting me eat all your easymac etc. (don't worry; I'll be over soon...). Lisa, someday I will be a self-confidence speaker and you will be my first subject and we can go shopping and buy awesome clothes! Elliot, someday we're going to the beach and you're going swimming. Thanks for laughing at me, and I love your hair! Michelle, thank you so much for being my personal art tutor last year, I don't think I could have dealt with Mr. Pilla without you! Nikki, thanks for sharing my lip gloss obsession and making me smile every time I see your crooked license plate. Richie, physics was the best (the calculator!) and I swear you are only person to ever call me "Liz". Heather, math isn't the same without you and you can't deny that you love it when I bother you! Nick, you are always so upbeat-it's fantastic. Thanks for being big enough to give me piggyback rides! Marisa, your swing is dangerous, but your tramp rules! Thanks for coming to my pictures with me (we are so beautiful!). Meagan, you are the sexiest person I know, thanks for the tights. Allyson, thank you for rescuing me this summer. I'm also so happy you scrapbook, and I can't wait to see your future ones! Cabans, let's have a straightening party, ok? And we'll be sure to do it in the driest weather possible! Erin, you watch out cause when you least expect it, I'm gonna get you in a thigh-slap! I love your spirit, and I'll see you at paint-a-plate this summer! Jeff, I think you are the nicest kid I have ever met. Thanks for the diving memories, and you are totally welcome to use the Jimmy whenever! Sarah P., I miss you so much! I love your stories (real or imaginary) and your drawings-keep it up! Allie, you are by far my favorite sophomore. I'm so happy you work at BF and I can't wait to make more Target trips this summer. Ty, I just want to thank you for being so damn nice to me all year. Steve, call me anytime your car breaks down. Jamie D., I know I'm your favorite Whitney friend, don't lie. To my Spanish class, you guys have made my year a blast! Especially Julie, Jack, and Kevin-you guys are the funniest people; I'll miss you! Everyone at BF, you guys make working so much more entertaining-I can't wait for the summer so we can have more good times. Thank you Mr. V and Dave for everything you have done for me. You have taught me so much; I hope I have demonstrated that! LC, thanks for all the education, the lip-gloss, and the shopping. Oh yeah, and for putting up with me! Colleen, thanks for all the advice, you're so level-headed. And I can't wait for our boxes to be decorated! To all my UU buddies at First Parish, you guys are just sooo cool-thanks a bunch. All right, I think this is the latest I have ever stayed up on a school night (it's 11:45!) so I'm tired, and because I'm tired, I'm forgetful...good night.

Gregory Hughes

First of all, I would like to thank my parents for being so awesome. Mom- you've always been there for me whenever I needed support. I love you with all of my heart. Dad- You are the most supportive, loving dad ever! You always went out of your way to spend time with me, whether it's Boggle, Ping-Pong, tennis, or ski trips to Sunday River! And you're always able to make me laugh! I would like to thank my family. They have supported me through all of my endeavors. She sets English on a plate in front of us instead of stuffing it down our throat. I would also like to apologize to her on behalf of our entire class for, at times, taking advantage of her kind nature. I would like to thank Mr. Walsh for his endless supply of personal examples. I would like to thank Col. Pappas, Capt. Carson, Chief Edris, and MSgt. Rollend for being superb mentors in every respect. I want to thank my athletics coaches. Lastly I want to thank Charleton Heston and say that I am who I am because of all these people.

Also, Canada gets my thanks for keeping it real in the north. And I can't thank Canada without thanking beans, which have helped me through hard times by providing carbohydrates and protein to keep me going. And finally, I'd like to thank glass in general, because without glass, we couldn't have cups, blenders, thermometers, windows, and thus food items like pies would go extinct, creating problems worldwide.

Katie Olander

I need to start by thanking all of my family. MOM, I love you so much. You do everything for me and would give me the world. I know sometimes it seems like I don't appreciate it, but I do, more than anything else. You have given me a wonderful life and sacrificed yourself for me. I promise that one day I will take care of you, not because I need to, but because I want to. I am proud to be your daughter GREGG, I am so happy that you came into my life ten years ago. I love you, too. As much as we may argue over stupid things, I truly appreciate everything you do for me, including paying for every dance thing on the planet and my car. DAD and LORI, I know I do not see you guys as much as we would all like, but I still love you enormously. All of my little sisters: JACQUI, BRIANNA, and KATHLEEN, I want you girls to stay little forever, and even though that is not possible, you will always be my baby sisters. I love you girls and could never imagine my life without you. NANA and GRANDPA, I am so lucky to have such loving grandparents like you. I love you. Thank you for everything you have ever done for me or have given to me. I don't know what I would do if something ever took you away from me. AUNTIE DONNA, thank you for always being around and being so fun, but I will never get on a boat with you and mom ever again! All my other family members: aunts, uncles, cousins, all of you, I love you. And then there are all of my friends, three best friends in particular. MICHELLE, oh goodness! You are an awesome friend and I was lucky to have someone like you around the past few years. It's nice to have someone around that understands things...sometimes. I would not trade anything in the world for our friendship, even all the diamonds! Seriously. Someday we will rent a movie that you want to see, someday. Next time we go on a long car ride, you bring the music and I'll bring the hair brushes! NIKKI, life would be so boring without clumsy people like us, maybe that's why we get along so well! I would never trade you in either, I promise. You are an awesome friend, I hope you know that. We have had some pretty good times. We will never forget Will at Fire and Ice, or Lyla and Stu. Next time we go to Hampton Beach, I suggest we bring along someone who knows where they are going. I will never use my directional if it gives you a headache. And I promise to never go banana picking without you. KEITH, oh wow. I think you know how I feel by now. You have been there for me through some rough times, some of them I don't think I would have gotten through them without you. I am so lucky to have you. I'm happy you came to Texas with me. Even though we learned to argue, I know we don't want to. I can't imagine you not being around next year. No matter what, always remember to smile, keep fuzzy hair, and don't leave watches on counters. I love you so. All three of you are the best friends I could ever ask for. You make me smile. And I like it when you come to my dance recitals! If for some reason you try to forget me, don't worry, I'll just find you anyway. You guys are awesome and I am the lucky person. All of my other friends are awesome, too. BECCA, you're an awesome French buddy. BETSEY, you're so funny and the best shopping buddy. WHITNEY, you're a great Barnes and Noble CD shopping buddy. KERRY, you're a cool stuff math buddy and if it weren't for you, I'd still be doing my math homework. REBECCA W. we have had some pretty good dancing times, never stop. HEATHER, we will always be English buddies, but somehow we manage to do very little studying. TRACEY and BIANCA, I know we aren't very close anymore, but I would do anything for you guys and you are what I call a loyal friend. MARISSA, you're my Maine buddy. COLLEEN, I hope I never really hurt you when I pinched you! LAURIE, thanks for always including me. And all my other friends, I appreciate having you guys around to hang out with. I always have the feeling that I'm forgetting

Heather and Lauren - I could not have better sisters. Thank you for always being such good friends, for being nice to me even when I was annoying, and for making sure I didn't turn into a weirdo. Thank you also for breaking in Mom and Dad so I had it easier than you did. Nana - Thank you for coming over every day since I was born, making my bed, making sure that I always did my homework, and for our talks. Papa - Thank you for driving me everywhere, and for teaching me to drive. Greg - From riding our bikes to Toy Works to driving around on Friday night, we have come a long way. First I would like to thank my parents. You guys are the best parents anyone could ask for. You have always been there for me, and you have both taught me so much. Thank you both for making me into the person I am today. Mom, you have taught me so much. Through out the past 18 years you have had to push me through school my entire life and even though sometimes it didn't seem like I appreciated it, I did. Without you I couldn't have come this far. Thank you for always waking up before me before school and making sure I was up and ready to go by the time the bus came. Even on the cold winter mornings at 4:00 a.m. waking up for hockey practice, you still got up to make sure I was ready and to send me on my way. Dad (Bryan), you have also taught me so much. You have shown me by example how a person should act. You are one of the honest and hardest workers I have ever seen. Over the last three summers I have been able to spend time with you that I will never forget. By watching you do everything you do, I have learned what it means to give 100 percent. I know I don't always say it or show it, but I love you both very much and I appreciate everything you have ever done for me. Colton, I know I've gotten on your nerves sometimes, but you have always put up with me and I thank you for that. If you ever need anything don't ever hesitate to ask me, because I will always be there for you. Glenn, thank you for showing me how to have fun on the job site, your jokes make me laugh every time. I would also like to thank the rest of my family, Liz, Mary Clair, Jeanie, Joe, and Vickie. You all are the nicest and most caring people I have ever met. Now for my friends, Pat, Chris, Scott, Tim, Greg, Brian, and Dave. You guys are the best. Pat, I'll never forget the times at your house, those were some wild times. The Mud Pit, the Driveway Party, and all of those other rippers you had, also at Winnepesaukee. Chris, I'll never forget the times when you, Pat, Jamie, and me used to cruise in the red wagon, listening to Bombs over Baghdad and doing reverse donuts in parking lots. Those were some good times. I'll never forget the time we went skiing, the gum wrapper didn't work. Scott, you have put up with a lot of stuff from us over the last year, and you never lost it. We were just joking around. You are truly a good friend. Tim, how's the craving treating you. Those were some good parties at your house too. Whenever I feel like going out and partying I'll know you will always be up for it. Greg, those were some fun times up at Maine last summer. I can hardly wait to go up there this summer. Brian, it's always good to know that whenever a party gets broken up you'll be right there running out the back door with me. Dave, those have been some fun times over your house the last couple of New Years. Thank you all for the great memories. I'm sure we'll have a lot more in the future. I'd also like to thank last year's seniors, Mike, Boone, Dennis, Craig, and Ryan for all the good times playing cards. I'd like to thank Ms. Irving, Mr. Stevens, and Mr. Sullivan. Ms. Sav, thank you for everything you've done for me over the last four years. You are the most influential teacher I have ever had. Dara: for always speaking your mind, letting me cook in your kitchen despite imminent danger of fire, and being my accomplice in insanity (remember our funeral for Echo?). Kate: for being a third party activist, for worrying teachers with your expulsion from the BDTC, for having the guts to subscribe to Libertarian propaganda for my sake (the day that Massachusetts gets instant runoff voting, I promise to repay the deed by kidnapping the Linux penguin so he can eternally mock Bill Gates in the name of democracy and fair business practices).

Katy: for being an extraordinarily nice person: baking cookies, driving us around, and doing so much more. Kayo: for pursuing (or at least attempting to) copious amounts of Latin, sleep, and work (by work, I mean procrastination, of course): in another life, we will be twins. Heather: for being orchestra buddies since Middle School; also, for being genius girl: you are the main reason why I passed geometry, physics, and various other math and science related subjects. Lilly: for all the good times in art enrichment, geometry, history, and sociology. Steph: for being willing to risk your eyesight for various endeavors such as hair-dyeing (It is a continuing source of relief that your vision is still 20/20). Mr.
Pilla: for putting up with me for all four years while still maintaining a killer sense of humor, and managing to teach me countless ideas and concepts about art in the process. Mrs. M. Sullivan: for reforming my view of English for the better, making learning a memorable and thoroughly enjoyable endeavor, and for creating an atmosphere where everyone felt comfortable participating. Mr. Reynolds: for turning me into a Republican, holding some of the best debates I've ever listened to, and ranting about the vast right-wing conspiracy in a largely humorous way. Mr. Sabourin: we were challenged to think harder while at the same time learning the meaning of character and integrity through your example.
Nicole: for being a wonderful sister- you are the most bizarrely entertaining person that I have ever met. Mom and Dad: for always wishing the best.
Last but certainly not least, the Creator: with you, all things are possible.

Ami, Memories

Ami, when we had you
We were so young
We grew together and had much fun

Take time to remember all that we've done
The places we've been, did you have fun?

SC, NC, OH, CA, then MA and the travel between Should give memories that last

Fights with your brother, too long in the car Memories you'll have from near and far

Old friends, new friends another year, another school You adjusted well.
You always do

Now, High School graduation is here Take time to reflect your prior years The places you've been, the friends you've made.
Oh yeah, and don't forget, your parents along the way!!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Ami,

You are our first great granddaughter and you are very dear to our hearts. We are so proud of you for all of your accomplishments in your life. We have so many memories of when you were growing up. It doesn't seem possible you are now graduating from high school. Always remember we love you very much. Papaw & Grammy

Ami,

Just a few words of good advice.
Always let your brain over-rule your heart.

Granny Mischler

Grandpa Mischler would have said, "don't take any wooden nickels".

Congratlnations to my first great niece. You have grown up to be a great young lady and always remain first in my heart.

I love you! Dwayne

From the days of the "Fairy Princess" to a Graduate I have watched you grow into a beautiful and intelligent young woman who I am so very proud of.

You will always be my "MiMi".

Love, Aunt Dale

"Good Luck" Uncle Eugene

Dear Ami,

We are so proud of you and your accomplishments thus far. You are a beautiful and intelligent young lady now, with tremendous sincerity that we all love.
Make the most of the years to come. With your wisdom and determination, all of your goals will be achieved! Keep your head up, learn from mistakes, and dream big - - settle for nothing but the best, you deserve it.
Live your life to the fullest and yet one day at a time for those goals and wishes will be obtained.

We are always here for you and love you very much.

Uncle Lee, Aunt Mary, Morgan & Mark

Dear Ami,

Congratulations on the past year, I just wish you could stay near.

Although, I know you don't want to be here. I thank you for the ride this past year!

Love, Philip

Dear Ami,

It seems like just a short while ago you were a little girl. Now, you are a beautiful young woman. There are many milestones throughout life, however, the corner stone of everything is your family, where you develop the affections and learn the values to live by. Stand strong for your convictions and extend your hand to others that may stumble.

Remember life is a journey, not a destination, and we are all on a pilgrimage. Set your goals high as you begin you next adventure, know that your family is always there and our love is unconditional. We are so proud of your accomplishments and we look forward to supporting you with each new challenge that you undertake.

Congratulations.

Love, Bawbaw and Nana

*Congratulations Mark
